

SENATOR DEFENDS POWER OF SUPREME COURT IN ADDRESS

Former Senator Pomerene
Addresses County Bar
At Meeting Here.

WANTS TRIBUNAL TO KEEP GREAT POWERS

Lauds Work Of Judges And Wants No Restrictions
Placed On Power.

A strong plea for the continuation of the present relation of congress to the supreme court of the United States, an appeal to the public at large to have faith in the men on the supreme bench and not attempt to make the court responsive to passing public opinion, and a splendid defense of the powers of the court, and of the foundations of law in the United States were among the features of a stirring address by former U. S. Senator Alton Pomerene of Cleveland and Canton before members of the Columbiana County Bar Association and other lawyers from many Ohio and Pennsylvania cities at a banquet at the Elks home Saturday evening.

The honored guest, one of the most prominent public men in the United States and a lawyer of note, was the main speaker on the very interesting program that was held in connection with the banquet. All members of the county bar, W. L. Hart Alliance, president of the Ohio State Bar Association, Atty. Lewis Goehring, Pittsburg, and Atty. Burt A. G. Nelson, of Cincinnati, were seated at the tables, and enjoyed a turkey dinner before the start of the program.

Defends U. S. Government
Sen. Pomerene, in discussing "The Constitution and the Supreme Court" told of the work of the court, the attempts to make it subservient to congress and also shackle its power in regard to declaring laws unconstitutional and gave his own viewpoint.

After many years in the upper house as a lawyer, of the situation in which the supreme court is now placed. He said in part:

"It has been said that the supreme court of England has not in the last 100 years declared an act of parliament unconstitutional. But England cannot be compared to the United States because England has an unwritten constitution and a single system of government, while we have a dual system and a written constitution.

"As a lawyer and a citizen of the United States I prefer our system of government to any in the world, to any that was ever devised by mankind.

"I think our fathers did most nobly when they devised our system of government. They gave our supreme appellate jurisdiction and made the court a keystone about which the life of the nation hinged.

"Suppose that a state supreme court would declare a law unconstitutional and the supreme court of the United States could not pass on that judgment. Our nation would eventually fall apart because all states would begin to do as they pleased.

"There must be one central place where questions for this nation with its many state governments can be decided forever by one tribunal, the highest of the land. It used to be that those who attacked the court wanted it to pass more laws unconstitutional. These laws had been made by the various states and by the congress.

Few Laws Held Void

"In recent years you can not see how this idea has changed? Today the virulent attacks on the court in order to restrict the powers of the court in declaring a law unconstitutional. The cry goes up that the court has too much power that it ought to listen to the whims of men in and out of congress who are laymen, who know nothing of law, and the bases of government.

"In the first 80 years of our government the court declared but four federal statutes unconstitutional. From 1867-1917 but 32 were thrown out.

OLD DIVORCE CASE
SCHEDULED AGAIN

McKinnon Petitions To Be Heard Again This Week;
Dates Back To 1912.

Lisbon, Dec. 3.—Assigned for hearing next Friday before Judge James G. Moore in common pleas court, is the divorce action, first brought by Everett T. McKinnon against his wife Anna E. McKinnon and the same cause brought by Mrs. McKinnon and the counter action for the same cause brought by Mrs. McKinnon against her husband.

In his original petition, McKinnon alleges they were married in Cleveland Feb. 8, 1912, and that three children were born to this union. He also recited that the children have been residing with their mother at Smiths Ferry, Pa., and a charge of extreme cruelty is alleged.

In her cross petition, Mrs. McKinnon sets up the claim that her husband failed in the support of his wife, also that he kept company with other women.

Workers Ready For Red Cross Campaign

Salem Chapter Expects 100 Per Cent Enrollment When Drive Gets Under Way Wednesday Morning.

Salem chapter, American Red Cross, wants the factories and business houses and homes in this city to be 100 per cent for the organization.

This can be accomplished by every employee in the different plants and stores enrolling during the annual rollcall of the chapter which opens at 9 a. m. Wednesday. Effort will be made to enroll as many people as possible during the campaign. The memberships are $1 and 50 cents of that amount goes for local work, while the other 50 cents is for the national.

A dinner meeting of the team workers will be held at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Elks home. At this time instructions will be given and details planned.

This last year 116 disasters were relieved by Red Cross funds. This is assurance that each membership is going to help with humanitarian relief in 1924.

The national Red Cross during the past year has withdrawn most of its foreign relief and is turning its attention to our own possessions. Every chapter was given this last summer a quota of children's clothing to be made and sent to Porto Rico. Salem chapter made and sent its quota. It was also asked to make and fill several comfort bags to be given to our injured veterans in hospitals as Christmas gifts. This request was filled.

The 50 per cent of the membership fee that stays in this community is used to employ a nurse to relieve suffering and to raise the health standard. It is also to employ a family case worker to visit in the homes of our less fortunate and to help raise their standards of living.

OPEN BIDS AGAIN
FOR LINCOLN AVE.

Youngstown Firm's Bid Is Lowest Of Three New Bids Submitted.

Bids for the paving of Lincoln ave. for the second time were opened Monday noon. There were three bids presented by two concerns.

The bids were: Ohio Willite Co., Willite process, $2.20 per square yard; Ohio Willite Co., asphaltic process, $1.79; Kelly-Meyer Co., Youngstown, $1.77.

The Kelly-Meyer bid is this time the lowest. When the bids were made almost a month ago the Ohio Willite Co. made the lowest bid but was not awarded the contract.

An injunction was secured by the Willite company restraining the Salem board of control from awarding the contract to the Youngstown concern.

Bids were again advertised for and today at noon were opened. There will be a meeting of the board of control Monday night to consider these bids.

WAR VETERAN, DIES
AT HOME SATURDAY

Prominent G. A. R. Member
And Resident Dies Following Long Illness.

Complications resulted in the death at 7:10 p. m. Saturday of Jesse M. Sproat, 78, one of Salem's best known Civil war veterans, at his residence on Ellsworth ave., after two weeks confinement to his bed. Mr. Sproat had been in failing health for the past three years but his condition did not become serious until two weeks ago.

J. M. Sproat was the son of Richard and Jane Sproat and was born Aug. 11, 1845, at North Benton. He had resided for the last 33 years in Salem.

The rest of his life was devoted to western travel, war service and a boyhood residence in Hanoverton where he dwelt for several years following the death of his parents. Returning from the west he stayed for a time in North Benton.

Mr. Sproat was one of the original members of the regiment known as "squirrel hunters." This regiment was made up of a party of farmers who went to Cincinnati to help ward off the Confederate attack. After serving in this regiment, Mr. Sproat enlisted in Co. K, 86th O. V. I., and was a member of the regiment that captured Gen. Morgan on the Crumbaugh farm near West Point.

Mr. Sproat served under Gen. Sherman during his famous march to the sea. He later served in the 15th Ohio Infantry.

Refusing promotion as a non-commissioned officer, Mr. Sproat served during the entire war as a private. He was discharged at the close of the war at Camp Chase, Columbus.

Prior to his service Mr. Sproat was a captain in a company of home militia. He enlisted at the age of 18. Jan. 20, 1869 he was united in marriage with Miss Maria Shinn, who survives, with two daughters, Mrs. W. D. King, Columbus, and Mrs. Sarah Prethorpe, this city, and one grand-daughter, Miss Dorothy King.

Mr. Sproat attended Salem High school at one time. He was a member of the First Methodist church and of Prescott post No. 10, G. A. R.

Rev. C. H. Hauger of the Methodist church will officiate at the funeral service at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the residence on Ellsworth ave. All veterans of the G. A. R. are asked to attend in a body but their service will not be given. Interment in Bunker Hill cemetery.

JUDGE AND LODGE EULOGIZE DEAD AT MEMORIAL SERVICE

Elks Pay Tribute To The 61
Members Of Lodge Who Have Died.

JUDGE CAREW GIVES SPLENDID ADDRESS

Ritual Witnessed By Many Elks And Friends At Sunday Services.

Before several hundred members of Salem lodge, No. 305 B. P. O. Elks and friends gathered in the Elks lodge room Sunday evening to pay tribute to the 61 dead members of the lodge, Municipal Judge George J. Carew member of the Youngstown Elks lodge No. 55, praised the annual custom of honoring these dead brothers at a memorial service.

He stressed the four bases of the Elks lodge, told of Salem's part in history and pleaded for closer adhesion to the best things in life in a memorial address following the lodge memorial ritual services.

Harvey Flanagan, exalted ruler of Salem lodge, called the role of the 61 departed members while other lodge officers joined in the ceremony which was concluded by a eulogy of the three who had died the last year by Homer H. Hickling. A program of music added to the service.

Stresses Elks Principles
Judge Carew, as the principal speaker referred to the annual custom of the order in holding a memorial service for all in the lodge who died and pleaded with his listeners to follow the good things in the lives of these men as examples.

"In the memory of these departed brothers let us consecrate ourselves to the better things of life and let their lives be a source of inspiration in the future.

"There are four cardinal principles which are bases of the Elks order. They are justice, brotherly love, charity and fidelity. Always adhere to these principles. Take from the lesson on this memorial day of living better lives.

"Today lodges in the state at Marion are honoring the memory of Warren G. Harding beloved member of the Elks lodge, and we too, hold in deep respect the memory of that man."

Hickling Eulogizes Dead
Homer H. Hickling eulogized three members of the Salem lodge who died during the past year. They are James Robbins, William Adams and John L. Sullivan. This was part of the lodge memorial ritual and followed the singing of a memorial ode by the lodge and audience.

A fine musical program added to the memorial services. Emmett H. Wizenacker played a selected piano solo; a quartet from Mt. Union composed of H. C. Schneck, John E. Lowry, Roy A. Degenhard and James L. Hibbard sang, "My Faith In Thee" and during the ritual "Father Take My Hand." The quartet also sang the last song, "Sleep Thy Last Sleep." Roy Degenhard of the quartet sang a solo.

Leroy Adams, 14, a Deerfield lad, was admitted to the Salem city hospital late Saturday afternoon, being rushed there from a woods near Deerfield, where he was accidentally shot by a companion, while out hunting.

Adams and several boy companions had gone into the country on a hunting expedition and Adams stepped from behind a tree as a member of the hunting party discharged his gun.

The bullet penetrated Adams' left thigh and a severe wound was inflicted, tearing out a portion of the flesh. Monday afternoon he was reported as being in a fairly comfortable condition.

IMPRESSIVE RITES FOR DR. S. E. CONRAD AT BURIAL SERVICE

Klansmen Participate In Funeral Service At Grave Sunday.

Funeral services for the late Dr. Samuel E. Conrad former state prohibition agent who was fatally stabbed in a raid in Youngstown the night of Nov. 19, was held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the home, 61 Broadway, in charge of Rev. H. L. Miller of the Christian church. At the grave many hundred members of the Ku Klux Klan participated in a short service, Rev. Dennis Myers, East Palestine and Rev. B. R. Johnson, East Liverpool adding Rev. Miller in the service.

The service at the home was conducted by the Rev. Miller. E. V. Myers saying a prayer. A number of a large circle of friends and relatives were present at the home to pay their last respect to the dead doctor.

Hours before the funeral procession reached Grandview cemetery about 1200 robed and hooded men and women of the Klan had assembled in the rain to witness the burial of a comrade. Around the grave a human cross of white-robed Klansmen had formed as an escort and keeping open a passageway for the funeral party.

At the grave was raised a beautiful silk American flag draped in mourning. A large number of flowers of every variety had been placed about the grave.

At the grave an officer of the Ku Klux Klan read the scriptures, while Rev. Dennis Myers eulogized the deceased. Rev. B. R. Johnson offered prayer and Rev. Miller closed the service.

Immediately following the funeral party's departure the Klansmen and women marched from the cemetery. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Salem, automobiles of out of town friends and relatives being parked in a field opposite the burial park on Franklin ave.

Among the out of town relatives were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Conrad of McKeesport, Pa. and Mrs. Mollie Phillips of East Palestine. Other friends came from East Palestine, East Liverpool, Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana, Wellsville, Chester, Cleveland, Pittsburg, points in Pennsylvania and other nearby towns.

The pallbearers were Police Chief Walter Warren, Mayor A. W. Ferren, Prof. Oliver, Mr. Chapin and Charles Rainsberger all of East Palestine and Prof. W. H. Matthews of Salem.

COUNTY RECEIVES
DEFAULT CHECKS

Surety Companies Send Two Checks For $64,000 To Commissioners.

Lisbon Dec. 3.—Receipt of two checks from indemnity companies as sureties on bonds of road contractors who defaulted in their agreements with the commissioners of Columbiana county and totaling $64,387.89 has brought to a close several years of litigation initiated in this county by the prosecuting attorney J. C. Hanley, and ended when Atty. Charles S. Dragan of Columbus as counsel for the surety interests failed in his effort to get the case reviewed by the United States supreme court.

The first check the county commissioners received was from the London & Lakeshire surety company of America was for $24,431.53 and the second check to be delivered a few days ago was for $21,434.53 from the Aetna Surety Co., offices of both companies being at Hartford, Conn.

Original action against the London company was for $37,000 and that against the Aetna company was for about $19,000. These two companies were sureties on the bond of Campbell & Son, who bought the improvement job in this county known as the East Liverpool Cannons Mill highway, north of East Liverpool and the Salem-Winona rd south of Salem. One the latter job no work was started.

The surety interests, during the trial of the case in the court of common pleas contended because of orders issued by the War department it was impossible to secure materials and labor and it was on this point that the case was carried through all of the courts.

In the lower court, the county obtained a verdict for the full amount of its claim against both companies, plus interest and the latter appealed to the court of appeals of this district and this court upheld the opinion of the lower court.

Atty. Dragan then appealed from the court of appeals to the state supreme court and this court upheld the opinion of the lower court.

DISCONTINUE FREE
HEALTH CLINICS

It is not probable that free clinics will be held in Columbiana county hereafter. This is the opinion of Dr. T. T. Church, Salem, county health commissioner.

Too many people able to pay for medical attention rushed to free clinics held in the past in this county when the plan was designed to aid those in need of such service and unable to pay fees.

While some effort was made heretofore to "check up" applicants for service at free clinics, it was not possible to investigate every case, so that when the clinics were held there was a rush for admission, and no questions asked.

However after the several clinics ended, both in Lisbon and Salem, there was a check up on those who had been treated and then it was discovered that some of the best paying patients of physicians took advantage of the free service and entered patients.

Friends To Continue
Evangelistic Services
Three Days Of Week

The evangelistic services at the First Friends church will continue Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, evenings, at least.

In the last week there has been a marked increase in these meetings, which have been conducted by the Pastor, Rev. C. E. Haworth, assisted by Singing Evangelist Clarence Cosand of Damascus. The singing of Mr. Cosand has been much appreciated.

All the Sunday services were well attended. There were about 20 seekers at the altar during the day. Mr. Cosand conducted a children's meeting in the afternoon.

NEW CONGRESS OPENS ITS FIRST SESSION TODAY

Eleven-Year-Old Youth Is Domestic Issues Confront
"Boy Trotzky." Two Houses Of 68th
U. S. Congress.

Leo Grandoff, 11-year-old New York city boy and referred to as the "Boy Trotzky," has been paroled to appear later in children's court. He was picked up by a policeman, with his pockets stuffed with anarchist literature. When questioned, the boy admitted he was a Communist and that he had a large class of communists among his ten to twelve-year-old companions.

Strength Division Narrow
The sixty-eighth congress is Republican, but it is a title of courtesy only. The division between Republican and Democratic strength is so narrow that in both houses the balance of power is held by small but determined and militant groups of Progressives and insurgents. They do not control the situation, but their power of vetoing and blocking at every turn is acknowledged on all sides. The legislative programs of both major parties, such as they are, are at the mercy of these insurgents.

The new senate convened with 51 Republicans, 43 Democrats and two Farmer-Laborites. Included in the Republican majority are six insurgents who boycotted the Republican caucus on Saturday and thereby gave inferential notice of their refusal to abide by any party decisions.

This little group by voting with the Democrats, which is not an unlikely procedure at any stage, can overthrow the Republican majority.

The senate adjourned early. The new house of representatives convened with 225 Republicans, 208 Democrats, one Independent, one Socialist, one Farmer-Laborite and one vacancy. The insurgent group in the house numbers anywhere from 15 to 25 members, and by voting with the Democrats they can depose Republican leadership any time they chose.

Domestic Questions Lead
For the first time in years, domestic questions overshadow questions of foreign policy at the outset of a new session. The great home-grown issues presented by taxation, transportation, tariff, immigration, the bonus, agricultural relief and their kindred questions, will dominate the session from the outset. Of these questions it appeared today that three will have the right-of-way by a sort of tacit understanding among all factions.

OLD TIMER LEADS
CONVICTS' ESCAPE

13 Flee Kansas Prison In
Daring Break Sunday
For Freedom.

Lansing, Kas., Dec. 3.—An old timer, who was serving his second term in the Kansas state penitentiary, led the 13 convicts who escaped Sunday through a tunnel to safety, according to prison officials here today.

The prisoner, Frank Castro, 60-year-old negro, had remembered the existence of the old abandoned tunnel, which was sealed about 30 years ago. Even old guards had not recalled the secret tunnel and many of them about the prison did not know of its existence.

Castro had aided in sealing up the old passageway for the new one. Late yesterday while 1,000 other convicts were enjoying Sunday, Castro led the 12 other prisoners into the secret tunnel.

The escaped convicts burrowed themselves through rock, mud and slime which had blocked the abandoned tunnel before they reached an opening, 400 feet away.

Christmas Savings Clubs

SEVERAL hundred people in Salem were members of the Christmas savings clubs promoted by the banks of this city and the total sum in the savings accounts was about $70,000. That large sum was built up by small weekly deposits, the amounts varying according to the ability of the depositors. The interesting feature was that so many stuck to the job and continued their weekly deposits through an entire year. These people will have tidy sums with which to make their Christmas purchases, as the checks will be distributed early in December.

Bankers do not hope to win to their list of regular savings depositors in one year all the members of these clubs. It is a part of the educational work of the banks in teaching the spirit of thrift and making its value apparent. But there are many members of these clubs who will use all or an important amount of the club savings in making their regular savings accounts larger. The club activity is useful and important in teaching thrift. It is of value to the small saver, proving the importance of small and persistent savings. There are those who feel that their few dollars would not interest a savings bank. That is all wrong. The banks welcome the depositor whose account starts in a modest way and grows. Such accounts are inspiring.

A large part of the savings will go into purchases for the Christmas season. That means more of Christmas and with that result no one can quarrel. A city with a large development of Christmas spirit is better and stronger for the experience. Members of these clubs will have ready cash for their purchases, will advertise the club and prove its helpful results. That will bring more members for the coming year. People will become accustomed to putting away a part of their earnings, will adopt the habit and thought of savings, will be better citizens for the development of that prudence, and will learn how to plan and prepare for the future. The Christmas savings clubs are important to the banks and to the club members. There ought to be a large increase in membership during the coming year.

Get Busy At Once
DON'T laugh, please—what we are about to say is no laughing matter to millions of harried men and women, thousands of them in this city. Neither is it a laughing matter to merchants and trades people.

Christmas is just around the corner, and, though "Do your Christmas shopping early" has become a trite phrase and often is expressed facetiously, it contains a suggestion that is replete with economic and humanitarian values.

If the Christmas trade could be intelligently spread out through the present days instead of being bunched, as so often is the case, within the few immediate preceding days before the great annual festival, there would be many more happy people in the world.

Stocks now are new and fresh; ere long they will be ragged and mangled over. Salesfolk now are not worn out and are more efficient than they will be three weeks from the present. So exercise a little judgment and consideration, and do your Christmas shopping early!

Selecting the annual remembrances for those we love is not an easy task at best; it requires time and thought in order that disappointments may be avoided and the fullest measure of happiness disseminated.

Think it over, and get busy at once!

LESSENING RISKS TO LIFE

Automatic Illumination of Lifeboats When They Are Launched From Ship Is Tested.

An invention for lessening risks to life at sea by the automatic illumination of lifeboats when they are launched from a ship's side has just been tested by British board of trade officials.

The inventors are two partners in the firm of Messrs. T. Blair & Co., ship's store merchants, in East London. By their device two small electric lamps are switched on by contact established from a float contained in a tube fixed to the sternpost of the lifeboat.

The float is forced up the tube by water when the boat is launched. Storage batteries capable of giving twenty-four hours' continuous light to the lamps are carried on board.

Under present board of trade regulations every ship's lifeboat has to carry an oil lamp and a dozen boxes of matches in a sealed watertight tin. The inventors of the new device claim that it will eliminate much of the risk of lifeboats being run down.

MOTOR CAR CAMPERS MANY

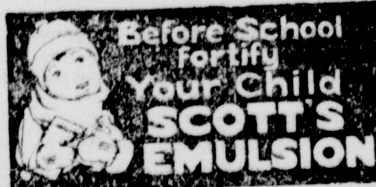

They Are Doing Good Work Building Great Fraternity of Outdoor Sports Lovers.

We have heard the lure of the outdoors preached as long as we can remember, says the Sportsman's Digest, and while no one disputed the value of time spent close to nature, it remains a fact that only since the motor car has come into universal use have appreciable increases been made in the number of people who spend a part of their spare time in the open.

A few years ago the motor car camper was a rare phenomenon—a curiosity that would attract attention at any cross roads. Today he is a fixture to be found on every highway and byway of this broad land. Each season he is carrying more and more of his fellows out into the open, thus adding, to a great extent, the purpose that the outdoor press has so long advocated.

The camper is to be encouraged, for through him a great fraternity of outdoor sports lovers is being built. The community which has not made provision for the camper and is not ready to welcome him is far behind the times, not only in the way of failure to co-operate in a growing movement, but from a selfish standpoint also. The camper, depending on the treatment he receives, can become a great asset to a community.

Yes, the camper is a fixture and it seems to be up to the various communities to receive him well and to send him on his way pleased with the courtesy shown him—an ardent booster for the communities which he has visited.

Novel Divorce Case.
In the court of Tioga county, Pa., Alzina M. Mosher was recently granted a divorce from her husband, Albert J. Mosher. Mrs. Mosher, who brought the action, is well past the three-score-and-ten mark. Fifty years ago she lived with her husband two years and bore him two children, after which they separated. All these years they have lived in the same neighborhood, but after a half century of deliberation the woman was bitten by the bug of "emancipation" and claimed her freedom. Her chief witnesses were "girls" of her own age, who retold the dead romance.

HARDING MEMORIAL WEEK ANNOUNCED

EXERCISES AND SERVICES WILL BE HELD THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY DEC. 9 TO 16.

PLANS OF THE ASSOCIATION

By EDWARD B. CLARK
Washington. — Announcement is made in Washington that Harding Memorial week will be observed throughout the country from December 9 to 16. During this time exercises and services of many kinds will be held in commemoration of Warren G. Harding's life as citizen and as president.

There recently was incorporated under the laws of Ohio an organization known as the Harding Memorial association whose duty it shall be to provide a suitable depository for the remains of the late president and to take over and maintain his home at Marion as a shrine for housing mementos of his long public service. This association has opened headquarters in Washington and today is engaged in effecting organizations in each state for the purpose of carrying out the general memorial plan.

It is said that the association has in mind an appropriate but modest memorial for the late president in his home town of Marion. It is not yet known what form this memorial will take. The site for it will be selected by a committee of which President Harding's widow will be a member. A sufficient sum of money will be set aside as an endowment for the perpetual care of the memorial.

Marion Home Will Be Maintained.
The Harding home on Mount Vernon avenue, Marion, will be maintained for all time and with it the front porch which, like the front porch at McKinley's home at Canton, became famous in a presidential campaign. It is said that 30,000 visitors have gone to the Harding home since the death of the president last August. It also is said that about 250,000 people heard speeches delivered from the front porch of the home during the campaign of 1920.

Several of the homes of former presidents of the United States still are standing and some of them have been preserved as what might be called national memorials. Of course, the first in mind is that of George Washington at Mount Vernon which stands today just about as it did in his lifetime, and is cared for by a national association of women.

It was only a few days ago that the Roosevelt birthplace in New York city was turned into a memorial museum. The house which stands on Twentieth street was the one in which Roosevelt was born and in which he spent the days of his childhood and earlier youth. The home of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster bay, on Sagamore hill, still is occupied by his widow. It is believed that eventually this home also will be maintained as a national shrine.

Thomas Jefferson's home at Monticello, Va., it is believed soon will be taken over for preservation for all time in memory of the author of the Declaration of Independence.

About a year ago a great oil company purchased an old house at Delaware, Ohio, and was about to turn it into a filling station or something of that kind when it was learned that the house was the birthplace of Rufus B. Hayes. The company thereupon turned the house over as a gift to the City of Delaware and the understanding is that today it is under municipal direction as a memorial.

The Lincoln house in Springfield, Ill., still stands and is under public guardianship. The log cabin in which Lincoln was born is preserved in Kentucky.

To Establish University Chair.
In connection with the Harding memorial it is the intention of the executive committee of the association to raise funds to establish a chair of diplomacy and functions of government in some leading university. This is said to have been one of the cherished ideals of the late president. He spoke frequently to his friends of the need of special training for our representatives in foreign countries.

Not long before his death in speaking about what he had attempted to do during his administration President Harding said nothing had given him more satisfaction than the coordination and greater efficiency which he had been able to bring about in the various government departments. It is proposed to include special instructions for executives of the government in the plans for the establishment of the chair of diplomacy and functions of government.

President Coolidge heads the Harding association board of trustees. The cabinet officers are included in the board's membership and with them are numbers of well-known Americans. A plan for associate members has been approved by the executive committee. Every person who contributes to the Harding memorial fund automatically will become a member. There are now in course of preparation certificates of membership which are to be handsomely engraved and to bear the name of the contributor to the fund.

All who have purchased the large "World Service" book are requested to meet at the same time for a study of Methodism at work in the world.

The W. F. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Floyd Paxson, 152 Ellisworth ave., Thursday, at 2:30. Mrs. Fletcher will have charge of the program. This is also the dues paying month.

An honor roll by vote of the official board will be posted each quarter in the front vestibule containing names of all our contributors to the current expenses of the church who are paid up to date or in advance. This honor is due those who regard their obligation to the church as sacred as any other. This honor roll will appear Jan. 1, 1924, for the first time.

Friday, Dec. 28, the Ohio Wesleyan Glee club of Delaware will give one of their fine musical concerts in this church. They took the honors last year among the college glee clubs of the state.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Cope, 231 1/2 Main st., Saturday, Dec. 8, at 2:30. The ladies of the society wish to thank the congregation for its liberal offering at the thank-offering service. The collection amounted to $110.

Circles 2 and 5 will meet Friday at the church at 2 o'clock. Please turn in all articles for the bazaar to Mrs. McNeelan or Mrs. Apple next week.

Welfare of Babies.
The welfare of babies depends upon the intelligence of the community and particularly upon the intelligence of their mothers, says a surgeon of the United States Public Health Service. That, he declares, explains why children on one side of a street in the Panama Canal zone are as healthy as any on earth while those on the other side die off at a frightful rate.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Collar and Cuff Sets

Everybody goes about the ordinary business of life, in plain dresses of dark woolen cloth, that depend upon collar and cuff sets to lend them variety and a dainty flavor. Therefore these sets are among the most acceptable of Christmas gifts. An endless variety of embroideries in white or in bright colors, comes by the yard, in straight or curved sections. One has only to stitch these sections to bands of lawn, to make a set like that pictured. Other sets are made of net, lace and sheer fabrics—the last finished with needlework in embroidery or fancy stitches.

HOLD MURDERER OF YOUNG WIDOW

Charge Negro Assaulted, Then Killed Pretty Woman In Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 3.—Police today held John Thomas Shaw, a negro, 24, a connection with the fiendish murder of pretty Mrs. Helen Hager Wheel, 23, who was abducted, assaulted, robbed, choked, shot and her body buried from a backstreet viaduct last Wednesday. Apprehension was felt by the police as crowds in a threatening mood gathered near headquarters and reserves were called in.

No crime in years has so stirred this city as the tragedy of the young widow and only the fact that two negro detectives were instrumental in bringing about arrest served to allay the feeling.

With Shaw two other men and a young woman, all colored, were held in charges of vagrancy. Clara Lee Smith, was wearing a diamond ring taken from Mrs. Wheel, which she said had been given her to wear by Shaw. A wrist watch worn by the murdered woman was recovered in a pawn shop and traced through two persons to Shaw, detectives said.

Shaw's automobile also furnished a strong link in the chain of circumstantial evidence against him as it answered a description given of the one which carried Mrs. Wheel away from the spot near her home. The machine showed bloodstains. Every precaution against violence is being taken.

COUNTY RECEIVES

Continued from first page the opinion of the two lower courts. Dragan, however, filed a motion for a writ of certiorari in the United States supreme court and this was denied. Followed then the payment of the claim of the county.

The county had issued five per cent bonds for the improvement of the Salem-Winona rd and awarded the contract for the East Liverpool-Cannons Mill rd to another contractor at a higher price than it was bid in by the Campbell interests. The two checks have been placed to the credit of the sinking fund of the county.

FIND MIRROR 2,400 YEARS OLD

British Museum Gets Beautiful Bronze Specimen of Greek Metal Workers' Art.

A Grecian bronze mirror 2,400 years old has been added to the British museum's collection of Greek antiquities. Its age has been deduced from a comparison with other early Greek bronzes found in the Acropolis excavations. According to a bulletin of the Copper and Brass association, the mirror dates from earlier than 470 B. C.

It measures seven inches in diameter across the disk, which is plain, except for an egg-and-tongue molding and beading around the delicately worked edge. Marvelously well preserved, it bears witness to the greatness of the ancient Greek metal workers, as indeed to the enduring qualities of the material in which they wrought, says the New York Times. The disk rests on a base forming an arc of a circle, with a voluted palmette in the center supporting it. Below are the figures of a winged youth and winged maiden, springing apart, one on either side, as though for flight from a central lotus flower. Under the flower is a spike which was probably fixed originally in some kind of a pedestal, as the whole work seems too large and heavy to have been used as a hand mirror.

The figures themselves are molded in the round, but the rest of the group is in flat relief. The girl, whose figure is draped, is shown holding a fold of her skirt, while the boy, who is nude, carries a wreath. It is believed that they represent Agon (Contest) and Nika (Victory).

The earlier bronzes found in the Acropolis excavations allowed less freedom to the forms. The new statue is, in fact, a later modification of the "kneeling run" pose, as the feet of the figures are brought closer together than had been the former custom of the bronze metal workers.

BANKS ARE RICHLY HOUSED

They Spend for Buildings About One Dollar in Seven of All Their Resources.

A million dollars still seems to many people a large sum. Multiply that million 1,100 times and you have the value of the homes in which American banks do business.

Next to United States government departments American banks are better housed than any other institutions of any kind in the world, says "Girard" in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The banks have put about one dollar in seven of all their capital, surplus and undivided profits in buildings. A decidedly solid, even if not a liquid asset!

In the procession to keep the banks in front Philadelphia is in the van. New bank buildings in process of completion here exceed in value $10,000,000. When erected, the old United States bank building in Chestnut near Fourth street, now the custom house, was generally described as the most beautiful building in America. Huge as it then appeared to be, it would be too small for some of our banks today.

It is hard to overestimate the moral effect of beautiful bank buildings.

Japanese "Movie Fans."

Recently compiled statistics by Japan's minister of education show that the motion picture is the most popular form of amusement in that country; next comes the public story teller, and, third, the theater. It is less than ten years since motion pictures were introduced into Japan and now there are 800 theaters devoted to "movies." The most popular foreign films are the ones with much swift action, Wild West scenes, hair-breadth escapes, cowpunchers and bad men of the wild and woolly West. Strange, indeed, must be the idea gleaned by the Japanese stay-at-home of the American civilization they portray.

Cremona Varnish Re-Discovered. A maker of stringed instruments in Italy has discovered the secret of the renowned varnish of Cremona violins which used to give to the old instruments their marvelous sonority. He found the secret in an Italian manuscript dated 1716 and states that it is made with certain resinous substances and is not soluble in alcohol. The varnish was invented by the brothers Van Eyck and used by their Flemish successors. From Holland the secret of its making was brought to Italy by Antonello da Messina, and it became known to the Cremonese through some painter in the sixteenth century.

Loose but Harmless.

An Englishman was paying his first visit to Scotland. He arrived at a small town and began to question the porter, "I suppose you have a probosc here?"

"Aye," said the porter.

"And does he have insignia like our mayors?"

"Have what?"

"Insignia—well, for instance, does he have a chain?"

"A chain?" said the astonished porter. "Na, na. He gans loose; but donna be feared, he's quite harmless."

Just Like All Men.

The baby was bawling. Pa stood it as long as he could and then ventured to make inquiry.

"What does the baby want?"

"He is like most men," snapped ma.

"How is that, my dear?"

"Doesn't know what he wants, but keeps yelling for it!" she returned.

"He will make a great statesman," said pa, discreetly.

Ohio Has More Telephones
Than England Or France

The United States with one-sixteenth of the world's population has almost two-thirds of the world's telephones.

Ohio, with about 6,000,000 people and one million telephones, has more telephones than either England, France or Canada, and more than South America, Africa and Mexico combined.

And Ohio's eight largest cities—Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo, Akron, Canton, Dayton and Youngstown with 500,000 telephones, exceed those of Italy, China, Russia, Hungary Portugal and Greece combined.

These figures, compiled by statisticians of the Bell System following a world-wide survey, show the supremacy of America in the development of the American-born telephone in business and social life.

According to the survey, there were on Jan. 1, 1922 a total of 21,948,960 telephones in the world. Of these 13,875,219 were in the United States. That is the American people, who number but 6 per cent of the total population of the globe, had for their use 63 per cent of all the telephones in the world.

Europe, with a population of more than four times that of the United States, had only 25 per cent of the world's telephones, and all other countries combined possessed but 12 per cent of the total telephones in existence.

The survey further reveals that only 29 per cent of the world's total telephones are under government ownership, the remaining 71 per cent are owned and operated by private companies. Moreover, as the compilation shows, nothing has been achieved under public ownership even approaching the extent of telephone service attained by the private undertakings in the United States.

There were, on Jan. 1, 1922, 127 telephones for every 100 people in this country, or one telephone for every eight Americans. It is significant, also, that outside the United States the telephone has reached its highest development in relation to total 406.

population in Canada and in Denmark where a large majority of the telephones are owned and operated by private companies. On Jan. 1, 1922 there were 192 telephones for every 100 people in Canada, and 8.2 telephones per 100 population in Denmark. Although considerably behind the United States in telephone development these two countries are well ahead of the great powers of Europe where government ownership obtains.

Germany, for example, has only 2.3 telephones for every 100 inhabitants. Great Britain and Ireland have only 2.1 and France has only 1.3. Europe as a whole had on Jan. 1, 1922, only 1.2 telephones per 100 people—a stage of development attained by the United States in 1900. In this respect Europe is almost 25 years behind America.

Another striking contrast between telephone conditions in this country and abroad is brought out by consideration of the relative extent of telephone service in the smaller cities in the various countries.

Here, Ohio again comes to the fore. Springfield, for instance with 11,095 telephones, outranks Porto Rico, with 9,102. Zanesville, with 8,505 telephones exceeds the whole nation of Columbia, S. A., whose telephones total only 7,301.

Other Buckeye State cities whose telephones exceed those of a whole foreign country run something like this:

Middleton, Alliance and Steubenville each has more telephones than Greece, which has an even 5,000.

Findlay, Sandusky and Massillon each has more telephones than Ecuador, whose stations number 4,036.

Lancaster, East Liverpool and Washington C. H., each has more telephones than Bolivia, which has 2,609.

And Fostoria, Upper Sandusky, Painesville, London, Xenia, Piqua, Ravenna, Barberton, East Palestine and Kent each has more telephones than Paraguay whose telephones total 406.

SENATOR DEFENDS SUPREME COURT

out by the court, and most were hysterical measures passed by congress in the period subsequent to Civil war. Since 1917 only four statutes have been declared unconstitutional. There is one answer to the critics. "I people in this country would take counsel of their brains instead of their passions they would not criticize the supreme court of the United States, the members of which I have, since its inception been the highest type, the most legal minds and of the truest American character. "Senator Borah and others want to make a decision of the court binding only when six of the nine members were for or against the statute. That would mean minority rule, which is entirely against the principles of the government of ours. "Although my own child labor bills in congress were held unconstitutional by the supreme court I have only the highest respect for the court because the court did what by law it should have done. Our supreme court gives its verdicts on law and on no other basis.

Cites Biblical Example
"A man holding the scales of justice should hold by the law, and not look out the window to see what the people want done. That is being responsive to public opinion, a disgrace to any judge who yields to its power."

"Remember our Saviour. Before Pilate he was found not guilty but the multitude cried, 'Crucify Him,' and Pilate yielded to public opinion after he made his judgment on law. Jesus was crucified a victim of public opinion. In that example not enough."

"I never want to see the power of the supreme court as it now stands ever taken away. I want you all, my friends of the Columbiana and other visiting lawyers to remember the poem:

"Woodman, spare that tree,
Touch not a single bough,
In its youth it sheltered me,
And I'll protect it now."

At the request of Toastmaster Atty L. M. Kyes, W. L. Hart, state bar president, responded and paid tribute to the masterful address by Senator Pomerene.

Entertain Many Visitors
Some Follies with Elizabeth Miller and the Beauty chorus of the "Elks Follies" a solo by Miss Miller and Harold Babb and a discussion by the lawyers at the end of the program completed one of the most successful bar banquets and meetings ever held in Columbiana county.

Among the out of town lawyers present were, in addition to Senator Pomerene

Judge N. B. Billingsley, Lisbon, president of the county association; Jason Brookes, East Liverpool, vice president; L. M. Kyes, East Palestine; W. L. Hart, state bar president and Mr. Koehler, both of Alliance; Robert Brooks, East Liverpool; Charles Boyd, Wellsville; William O'Grady, James O'Grady, Frank Lones, Walter B. Hill, G. D. Ingram, Wellsville; W. E. Warren, Leetonia; W. O. Wallace, Homer Hammond, Columbiana; Harry Rigby, Ben Bennett, Bleine Cochran, East Liverpool; Lewis Goehring, Pittsburgh; Curt H. Getelson Cincinnati; Judge S. W. Crawford, Judge Lodge Riddle, Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Hanley, Clerk of Courts John T. Burns, Walter Beck, Lisbon.

A man may become weary of daily toil, but it does not produce as much depression as does daily idleness.

Credit is a convenient garment, but it is liable to become a little too tight for free movement.

You Can Quickly Limber Up Sore, Stiff, Swollen Joints

Even Chronic Rheumatic Swellings in Knee, Elbow, Shoulder or Finger Joints Yield to the Mighty Powerful Influence of JOINT-EASE.

It's here right in town and The J. H. Lease Drug Co. Floding's drug store, Bolger & French and every live druggist has it.

It's a low price remedy, to be sure, but that doesn't stop it from taking the kinks, lameness or torture out of your troubled joints.

Joint-Ease is the name, so called because it is compounded solely for the purpose of relieving all joint ailments.

Just rub it on the tormented, lame joints and in just a few seconds it will penetrate to the bone and blessed comfort comes quick.

It absorbs instantly and is so clean and stainless that you can rub it on often and get thereby results much more quickly, when the joint is inflamed and the agony intense.

Being such a powerful counter irritant, it cannot help bringing speedy and helpful results in congestion, sore throat, chest colds, lumbago and neuralgia much quicker than almost any remedy you can buy.

But you must remember that it is for joint afflictions that it is most dispensed and its helpfulness will astonish you after all ordinary liniments and other treatments have failed.

NEVER TOO OLD TO LEARN

Given "Sand" and Brains, There is Always Opportunity for Man to Achieve Success.

First a clerk in a music store and then a music teacher for some fifteen years, Theodore Presser told me recently he felt as if he were "hemmed in by four walls."

Did he let a change of occupation bluff him out of a real career? Not much.

He started a music journal and he has lived to see it enjoy a far larger circulation than any similar publication in the world.

Until mid-life, E. H. Harriman knew no more about the details of railroad operation than he knew about the inside of a battleship. He was a stock broker.

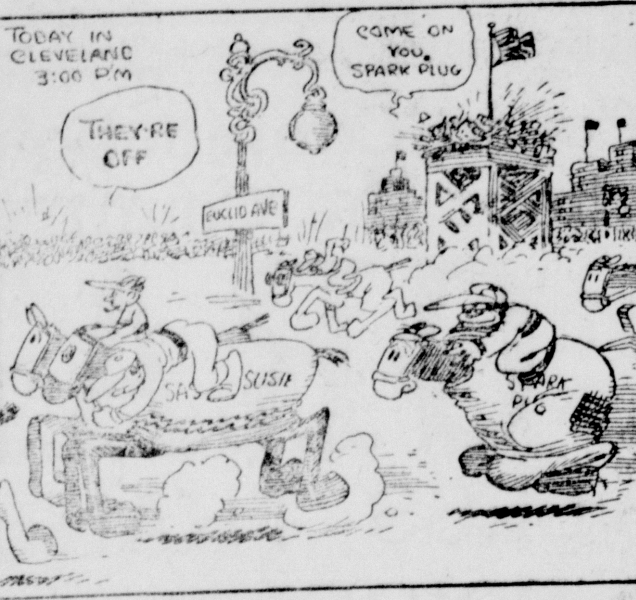

"I'm at the wrong end of this game," said he, and in short order, but in defiance of age limit, or dead-line rules, Harriman stepped quickly into first place among American railway chieftains.

The Union Pacific might build a monument dedicated to the idea that no man is ever too old to learn a new game, provided he has sand and brains.—Chicago Daily News.

Select Three Salem Stars On Mythical Premier First Eleven.

HOUSER RANKED AS GREATEST PLAYER

Sartick, Young, McConville
Also Play Brilliantly;
Name Three Teams.

By H. F. BRAMAN.

Sporting Editor of The News
In selecting an eleven to represent the best players in any group of educational institutions it is often a very difficult task to give in each case the proper credit to some players. A man may be a sensational player, but still not be a star. A man may perform brilliantly one day, and poor the next.

The writer has made an honest effort to pick the three representative teams in Columbiana county this season. Each man is considered for all-around value to the team. Each man must have played all season to merit selection, and each player must have displayed marked ability at his post to get on any all-county eleven. One player, a Salem man was kept out most of the season because of illness, but he could not, grant a player as he is, be considered in selecting the first team as it would have been unfair to men who have played all year.

Four in Limelight
The county season brought to light four outstanding players in Houser Sartick, Young and McConville. Many other men selected are stars in every sense of the word, but none stand out like the Salem full-back and left end, Liverpool's quarterback and Wellsville's tackle. It is an interesting fact to note that the guards were below par, while the rest of the positions were held by men of high caliber.

Sartick of Salem, and Salmon of Leetonia are first choices at end. Sartick is perhaps the best end in Northern Ohio and is simply unstoppable. A very brainy man, an excellent passer, a swift runner, Sartick stands out as a beacon light for others to follow. Salmon, captain of Leetonia is great, also if that word can adequately express his ability. He, like Sartick, is a heart on both defenses and offense, although he cannot beat Sartick's record of block, for at least one punt in every county game. Shea, Wellsville, and V. Judge, Salem, press hard as second choices.

Judge is playing his first year and next year he will be a man. Reese, Reese, Liverpool and Captain Rolley, Wellsville follow closely on the third team.

The three teams are blessed with wonderful tackles. Young, Wellsville a giant, is the best man and Captain McBane, Liverpool, slightly less brilliant, is his mate on the first team. It was hard to have to place Captain Crutchley and Corso of Salem, second, but fine as they are they cannot rise above Young and McBane, Liebschner, East Liverpool, and Captain Farmer, Lisbon are third placers.

As we said before the guard selections are below the high standard of the other positions, but just the same it would be difficult to go through Pignator, Wellsville and Morrissey, Leetonia; Simmonds and Yengling, Salem, and second team selections, with Gaunt, Salem, and Kirtley, Palestine on the third team.

Plenty of Quarters
The center question was almost a tossup, Vollmer, Salem, on account of his defensive work and because he outgated every man he faced, is given the lead over Captain Helman, Palestine. White, Leetonia, goes into third place.

Here is another hard thing. There are many good quarters this year, like ends and fullbacks. McConville is in the mind of the writer, without peer as a field general. He is also a triple threat man and a clean player. McConville is regarded at Liverpool as the greatest player turned out in five years. His being a veteran makes him rank far above the rest. That does not dim Bova's brilliancy as the little Salem quarter playing his first and last year for the red and black, lend a green team to second place in the county race, a wonderful feat. If only Bova could grace the gridirons next year, he would have no equal. V. Altmar, Leetonia, is out third man to place. He also has a football brain.

Wellsville contributes this year to football the hardest playing half in county, D'Anita Leetonia's star full-back, Morbato, gets the call as "Cuzzu's" running mate. You cannot

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Here are some unusual facts in relation to the all-county teams selections.

There were two Orrs, two Todds two Cornelli's and two Altmar's in the various High school backfields.

There were three Blue and White schools, Leetonia, Lisbon and East Liverpool.

Rickenbacker

And Now--- Rolls-Royce!

A cablegram just received says:

"In the London Automobile Show, 80 British makes, 70 foreign makes exhibited, of which 20 American. Fifteen of leading British makes offer four-wheel brakes, including Rolls-Royce large car, Lancaster, Daimler, Vauxhall, Crossley, Sunbeam."

Isn't that the irony of fate?

Rolls-Royce!—the name that has been the leaning post—the car that has been Exhibit "A" in the propaganda to stem the tide of 4 Wheel Brakes!

Rolls-Royce now brings its product up to date.

At the recent Paris Automobile Show some example of Rickenbacker advanced engineering was endorsed in every booth.

Many improvements pioneered by Rickenbacker—first seen in this product—were shown in the highest priced cars.

4-Wheel Brake—100 per cent.

100 per cent of them were internal expanding type, too—and 99 per cent mechanically operated.

Double fly wheels; Air Cleaners; "Double Depth" Frame; Ball Bearing steering; Disc Steel Wheels;—and 4-Wheel Brakes. All of these features were pioneered by Rickenbacker.

Surely the Rickenbacker is the car you want. Drive the car that is the last word in engineering refinements—drive the car that mechanically measures up to the finest European products—drive the car that you can be justly proud of.

LARGE SHIPMENT OF LIVESTOCK IN COUNTY LAST YEAR

Nearly $100,000 Worth Is Shipped From County
In 11 Months.

By M. K. ZIMMERMAN
Close to $100,000 worth of live stock was shipped out of Columbiana county during the last 11 months by the Columbiana County Livestock Co., according to the fiscal report made at the annual meeting held last week in the offices of the Farm Bureau at Lisbon.

Salem has proved to be the most active shipping point in the county with Signal the smallest of the nine shipping stations in the county. Stock to the value of $98,406.64 was shipped to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh markets for the term beginning Dec. 1, 1922 and ending Nov. 1, last. All shipping being done under the supervision of Dallas Hahn, of Homeworth, county manager for the association.

The shipping record from each of the stations in the county is officially given as follows:

Salem	$39,209.43
Kensington-Summitville	17,563.32
Homeworth	15,930.96
East Rochester	9,778.91
East Palestine	4,698.85
Columbiana	3,680.45
East Liverpool	3,188.91
Lisbon	2,504.86
Signal	1,450.95

Because of the mixed car shipping done out of the county, it cost the shippers an average of 85 cents a hundred weight to get their stock into the market, which includes freight, insurance an office cost. It costs more to ship such mixed cars than straight cars, as more time is required to make out account sales, occasionally half a day being required to forward account sales on one mixed car, where so many have shipped collectively. Where just one shipper is concerned, only one account sales bill is made out and this can be forwarded within a few minutes.

The new executive committee for the Columbiana County Livestock Co., is composed of E. Y. Gamble, Salem; Lloyd Farmer, Leontina, R. 3; Ernest Wathrick, Bolotin, R. 2; Carl Hahn of Bayard, representing West township; Edward Mulhern, representing Franklin township, with post office at Summitville; County Manager Dallas Hahn Homeworth.

A total of 88 cars of livestock were shipped out of the county during the 11 months, an average of eight cars per month. The market weight of these shipments totaled 1,233,759 pounds and the average cost of shipping was 85 cents per hundred weight. The new executive committee will meet within a few weeks for the purpose of electing officers.
